In a nutshell

The Heart of Jesus is adored as a symbol of his threefold love: human, spiritual and divine.

In the Old Testament, this love is described as a father's love for his children or a husband's for his wife.

In the New Testament, the promise of living water, the Holy Spirit, is fulfilled in the pierced heart of the Messiah.

Today's Readings

Hosea 11:1.3-4 My heart is saddened at the thought of parting.
1 John 7:7-16 God loved us first
Matthew 11:25-30 I am gentle and humble of heart.

OUR SPIRITUALITY OF THE HEART

The presence of God at the heart of the universe makes the world sacred and this presence draws us to transcend our own being through love, a love that has as its source the Heart of God.

Spirituality of the Heart reverences the human heart as loved by God unconditionally, and as the privileged place of encounter with God. Living such spirituality involves making the journey into one's own heart and into the heart of the human condition, open to encountering there the compassionate heart of Jesus.

It is this encounter that has the potential to open our hearts so we can live differently. Spirituality of the Heart invites us to be aware of the movements and responses and yearnings of our own hearts and the hearts of those around us and to be open to the presence of God. This way of living opens up enormous possibilities for life and love and offers a challenge to grow ever more deeply in kindness, compassion, humility, forgiveness, understanding, hospitality, simplicity and a sense of humour.

Spirituality of the Heart leads us from our own hearts to the pain and suffering of the world in which we live. We are called to be God's Heart on Earth and to offer ourselves to be used as source of healing for the wounds of our world. A Spirituality of the Heart is a way of living – a way of being in the world... a journey to be travelled (with others),... an energy that sustains and moves us, a dance in which we are participating... a way of being in the world, in relationship to self, others and God; a way of coming to rest within ourselves, at our deepest centre." James Maher msc

Raise your voices

Entrance antiphon: The designs of his Heart are from age to age, to rescue their souls from death, and to keep them alive in famine.

Response to the psalm: With joy you will draw water from the wells of salvation.

Gospel acclamation: Alleluia. Alleluia.
Take my yoke upon you: learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart. Alleluia.
