The Most Holy Trinity
11th June/ 12th June
2022

Today's Gospel in a Nutshell

Jesus is speaking to his disciples at the Last Supper.

He is about to die and still has much to say to them, but they cannot take it in now.

He trusts that with the coming of the Holy Spirit, the disciples will remain in intimate relationship with himself and his Father.

Readings for this weekend

Proverbs 8:22-31	Wisdom was born before the earth was made.
Romans 5:1-5	God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit.
John 16:12-15	Whatever the Father has is mine. The Spirit will receive what I give and tell you about it.

REFLECTION

Mindful of this feast of the Holy Trinity, I begin my prayer by making a very slow, thoughtful sign of the cross. Perhaps this is a gesture I often make without really thinking ... but today I take time to ponder each person of the Trinity. I prepare myself for prayer, in whatever way works best for me.

In time, I slowly read through the Gospel a number of times, savouring the words, and noticing where I find myself drawn. I take my time – revisiting the words or phrases that particularly speak to me. I invite my creator, who is God the Father ... the Word made flesh, who is my saviour Jesus Christ ... and the Holy Spirit, bringer of light and wisdom ... to enlighten my heart and mind, as I continue to ponder the mystery of their unity.

I may want to imagine myself now standing alongside the disciples, looking on as Jesus speaks. Perhaps at first I find his words too much to comprehend fully. Then Jesus speaks directly to me, reminding me that I share, with him, the knowledge of what is to happen in the days and weeks ahead ... the horror of his death on the cross, and the glory of his resurrection and ascension into heaven. How do I feel now as I ponder what I myself believe, to be that truth brought by the Spirit, glorifying Jesus and the Father?

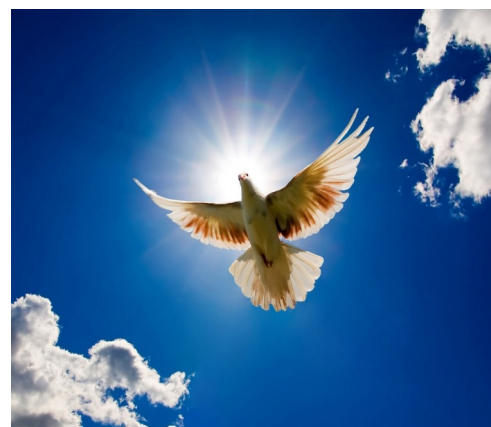

As I begin to draw my prayer to a close, I ask myself how my beliefs influence the way I am living my life now. Do my actions always bear witness to the love I have been given? Do others see the love of God through me? In faith and humility, I ask for the graces and blessings I need to always bear true witness to the glory of the Father, Son and Spirit.

Prepared by St Beuno's Outreach in the Diocese of Wrexham, UK

Entrance antiphon: Blessed be God the Father, and his only-begotten Son, and the Holy Spirit, for he has shown that he loves us.

Response to the psalm: O Lord, our God, how wonderful your name in all the earth!

Gospel acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia! Glory to the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit: to God who is, who was, and who is to come. Alleluia!

Planned Giving Envelopes 2022

Thank you to all our planned giving parishioners for your generosity this year.

The envelopes for the new financial year 2022/2023 are available in the foyer.

Our planned giving programme is an opportunity for parishioners to commit donating funds at regular intervals. These donations are a primary source of income for our parish. It allows the parish to budget for expenses and plan for specific projects.

If you would like to be part of our program please contact the office 9315 7562, or email <stbparish_coogee@yahoo.com.au>

St Vincent de Paul

The winter appeal for St Vincent de Paul will be held on Saturday 25th and Sunday 26th June.

This Winter vinnies appeal will provide emergency relief to people at risk and experiencing homelessness. Your donation will help our Vinnies volunteers to rebuild lives.

Phil Docherty, President of St Brigid's Coogee Conference.

The mystery of the Most Holy Trinity tells us that we do not have a solitary God up there in heaven, far away.

No, He is the Father who gave us his Son, who became man like us, and who sends his own Spirit to be even closer to us.

A message from the Archdiocese of Sydney

Child sex Abuse is a crime. The appropriate people to deal with a crime are the police. If you – or anyone you know, have been abused, please contact the police. Alternatively, you can contact the Safeguarding and Ministerial Integrity Office at (02) 9390 5810 or safeguardingenquiries@sydneycatholic.org.

You may also want to speak to your Parish Priest, who will be able to provide support and guidance. The Archdiocese has a legal obligation to report crimes to the police. St Brigid's Parish Coogee Safeguarding Officer is Sharon Waller.
