Sunday in Ordinary
Time

In a nutshell

Jesus sent disciples in advance to all the places he was to visit.

He gave them precise instructions: to pray for labourers for God's abundant harvest, to travel light, and to accept hospitality.

They are to cure the sick, and assure everyone, even those who do not welcome them, that 'the Kingdom of God is very near.'

Are we good news to the people of our time?

Readings for this weekend

Isaiah 66:10-14	The Lord will Prosper Jerusalem
Galatians 6:14-18	Paul boasts of the cross of Christ
Luke 10:1-12.17-20	Jesus send forth the seventy-two

NADIOC Week—The harvest is plenty but the labourers are few.
Luke 10:1-9

Today we celebrate the fact that God has always been present with, and loved, our First peoples in Australia, a love that God extends to all First Peoples across the world.

In today's Gospel Jesus tells us to pray to ask the Lord of the harvest to send out labourers into his harvest. If we truly want more laborers for the vineyard that produces the Good news of life in abundance for all, the same vineyard that also tells the Jesus story through the eyes and hearts of Aboriginals and Torres Strait Islanders, then praying is only one way to do this. We also need to make a deeper commitment to our sisters and brothers through being labourers in the vineyard.

NAIDOC has a theme this year of "Get up, Stand up, Show up". Labourers for the harvest of the Lord and that can take the form of getting up and being active. There is much we can do as Christian people to address issues that affect our First Nations sisters and brothers.

I have my story of asking others for help to profile Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander culture - the oldest continuing culture - during my Episcopal Ordination. What is your story? When were you active with issues that affect First Nations people? And if you don't have a story yet of being a labourer in that vineyard, then get up, stand up and show up to places where issues of First Australians are being addressed. People are just waiting to be asked. The harvest is plentiful but the labourers are few.

Bishop Tim Norton SVD Auxiliary Bishop—Archdiocese of Brisbane

(7am Mass)

Entrance antiphon: Within your temple, we ponder your loving kindness, O God. As your name, so also your praise reaches to the ends of the earth; your right hand is filled with justice.

Response to the psalm: Let all the earth cry out to God with joy.

Gospel acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia! May the peace of Christ rule in your hearts, and the fullness of his message live within you. Alleluia!

A message from the Archdiocese of Sydney

Child sex Abuse is a crime. The appropriate people to deal with a crime are the police. If you – or anyone you know, have been abused, please contact the police. Alternatively, you can contact the Safeguarding and Ministerial Integrity Office at (02) 9390 5810 or safeguardingenquiries@sydneycatholic.org.

You may also want to speak to your Parish Priest, who will be able to provide support and guidance. The Archdiocese has a legal obligation to report crimes to the police. St Brigid's Parish Coogee Safeguarding Officer is Sharon Waller.
